

Social Studies, Grade 4
Unit II: Lesson B3

Essay: My New Home

Imagine yourself as an early explorer of your state who goes back to your country to tell the people what the state is like.

Write an essay telling what you might have said about the geography, climate, and Native Americans in your state. Include information about the kinds of vegetation and bodies of water found there.

Share your final essay with classmates.